My dear Friend,

As you expected, your letter under date August 23rd has found me at East Setauket, seeing that it arrived this morning. I am very sorry I was not here when you looked in at the family.

Thank you for all you say about my Winter program at the Tabernacle. It is a pretty full one. With it I am combining the work at Boston for another year, but find that I am compelled to limit my regular work to these two centres; which of course means that the New York work must be discontinued.

I have every reason to be thankful for the measure of health and strength granted to me, but I am becoming more and more conscious of the necessity for curtailment in some measure.

I am very interested in what you tell me about your own visit to the Conference at Stony Brook, and I think particularly in what you report as having been said by Captain Wallis. I am rather glad to read that he feels as he does, notwithstanding the fact that his work here is so largely associated with men and Conferences of the stamp that he seems to deplore.

No, I do not imagine that Machen will corrupt my theology! Seeing I have never heard him, I am quite looking forward to doing so. Whether I shall meet him personally, I cannot at all tell, as of course I am not staying in the hotel.

Your line of preaching from Mark is certainly suggestive, and I believe you will have a good time in your work of preparation, and in the delivery of your messages.

How far is Elizabeth from New Brunswick? The reason of the question is that I have consented to speak at the Theological Seminary of the Reformed Church in America, in New Brunswick on the evenings of September 14 and 15, in connection with a Conference of ministers which they hold. I fear it is too dar to get back home on the Monday night, and I had intended writing, if it was near enough, for me to stay with you that night, and spend the early hours of Tuesday with you. Write and tell me quite frankly about this. As I shall doubtless be hearing from them again almost immediately about details, I should like to have your reply to this question.

The Conference here is going well. In comparison with others that I have been visiting this Summer it is a small one; but there certainly is an excellent spirit, and I am enjoying my work.

Do not forget to give my love to Queen Anne, and in this I am joined by Mrs Morgan and the girls. I may say that this applies to you too.

Always yours,

Eugene Morgan

Dear Dr Robinson,

Very many thanks for your prompt reply to my impertinence. How glad I am that I was impertinent!
Nearer the time I will let you know exactly where I am to be in Brunswick.

Excuse haste. Am just off to first Session of the day.

Love to everybody.

Yours,

E. Setauket
